Did You Know? Sometimes doing good things leads to faith. But faith and actions rooted in love go together like... rice and kimchi (or whatever are solid pairs in your culture). One of the things (or guidelines) that help me live faithfully are John Wesley’s Three General Rules of Methodism. I believe the General Rules help me live out Jesus’ greatest commandments: Love God and love neighbor. 1) Do no harm. 2) Do Good. 3) Stay in Love with God. By practicing these three rules in our daily lives, we can create spaces and places where love, justice, and wholeness can be realized because it can (and does) guide us to be Christlike. When we truly embody the teachings of Christ; when we intentionally set out to be imitators of Christ — being Christlike — the revolution becomes contagious and gives us more opportunities to make disciples of Christ for the transformation of the world. The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) is the not-for-profit global humanitarian aid organization of the United Methodist Church that works to alleviate human suffering caused by war, conflict or natural disaster. UMCOR responds to natural or civil disasters that are interruptions of such magnitude that they overwhelm a community's ability to recover on its own. Visit the UMCOR website for information on how you can help people suffering from disasters and conflicts. Every dollar designated for a specific program goes to that program. UMCOR is 100 percent efficient because they receive donations toward the cost of doing business from the annual UMCOR Sunday.
