

When We Pray – Things Will Change
July 15th, 2020

God’s Promises

“As I have told you before, I tell you again that I Am with you wherever you go. (Genesis 28:15, Joshua 1:9) You are not alone. I will fight your battles for you. (Exodus 14:14) You are not meant to fight this battle. (2 Chronicles 20:17) All you must do is stand firm in your faith (1 Corinthians 16:13) and trust that I Am here with you. (Hebrews 13:5) I Am working all things out for your good and for My Glory,” saith the Lord (Romans 8:28)

“In the midst of the storms and trials that you face, you shall know that you are in the palm of My Hand. (John 10:28) I shall be your covering and your protection. (Psalm 91:1-4) When you feel alone and discouraged, I Am with you. (Hebrews 13:5) Call unto Me and I will give you rest. (Matthew 11:28) I will set your feet upon a solid rock. (Psalm 40:2-4) And the gates of hell shall not prevail against you (Matthew 16:18) and no evil weapon formed against you will prosper. (Isaiah 54:17) If you will just keep your eyes fixed on Me, your faith will not waiver and your strength will not fail. (Luke 22:32) For I will be your strength and I will walk with you through the storm,” saith the Lord. (Isaiah 40:31)

“When you feel alone, just look around at all that I have created. There you will find Me and you will sense My Presence. When you stop and listen, you will hear Me speak to your spirit and you will be encouraged that you can make it through whatever trial you are facing. (2 Corinthians 1:4) Not because of your own strength, but because with Me all things are possible. (Matthew 19:26) I give strength to the weary. (Isaiah 40:29) I comfort the grieving. (Matthew 5:4) I heal the sick. (Matthew 10:8) I bind up the wounds of the broken-hearted. (Psalm 147:3) I have heard your cry and I will answer you,” saith the Lord (Isaiah 65:24)

“I take the weak and make them strong. (2 Corinthians 12:10) I take the fearful and make them brave. (Deuteronomy 31:6, Joshua 1:9) I take those who are humble and submissive and exalt them in due time. (1 Peter 5:6) I use My servants who walk in obedience to do great and mighty things to bring Glory to My Name. (Isaiah 42:7) It’s not a matter of what you can do for Me. (2 Timothy 2:21) It’s all about what I can do in and through a willing vessel,” saith the Lord.

"Place your hope, your faith, your trust in Me. (Psalm 146:3-5) Fix your eyes upon Me. Look unto Me, the Author and Finisher of your faith. (Hebrews 12:2) Know ye this. I Am the Lord, Your God. (Joel 2:27) Hear ye My Voice. (John 10:27) Listen to Me. (James 1:22) Remove the distractions from around you and I will speak to you. (1 Corinthians 7:35) When you pray unto Me, when you see My Wisdom and Discernment, I will answer you. I will show you great and mighty things which thou knowest not. (Jeremiah 33:3) Walk in My Way. (Jeremiah 6:16) Let My light shine on your path. (Psalm 119:105) Go forth in My Name and Be Blessed, Dear One" saith the Lord of Hosts. (Matthew 23:39)

When We Pray – Things Will Change
July 15th, 2020

God’s Promises

“As I have told you before, I tell you again that I Am with you wherever you go. (Genesis 28:15, Joshua 1:9) You are not alone. I will fight your battles for you. (Exodus 14:14) You are not meant to fight this battle. (2 Chronicles 20:17) All you must do is stand firm in your faith (1 Corinthians 16:13) and trust that I Am here with you. (Hebrews 13:5) I Am working all things out for your good and for My Glory,” saith the Lord (Romans 8:28)

“In the midst of the storms and trials that you face, you shall know that you are in the palm of My Hand. (John 10:28) I shall be your covering and your protection. (Psalm 91:1-4) When you feel alone and discouraged, I Am with you. (Hebrews 13:5) Call unto Me and I will give you rest. (Matthew 11:28) I will set your feet upon a solid rock. (Psalm 40:2-4) And the gates of hell shall not prevail against you (Matthew 16:18) and no evil weapon formed against you will prosper. (Isaiah 54:17) If you will just keep your eyes fixed on Me, your faith will not waiver and your strength will not fail. (Luke 22:32) For I will be your strength and I will walk with you through the storm,” saith the Lord. (Isaiah 40:31)

“When you feel alone, just look around at all that I have created. There you will find Me and you will sense My Presence. When you stop and listen, you will hear Me speak to your spirit and you will be encouraged that you can make it through whatever trial you are facing. (2 Corinthians 1:4) Not because of your own strength, but because with Me all things are possible. (Matthew 19:26) I give strength to the weary. (Isaiah 40:29) I comfort the grieving. (Matthew 5:4) I heal the sick. (Matthew 10:8) I bind up the wounds of the broken-hearted. (Psalm 147:3) I have heard your cry and I will answer you,” saith the Lord (Isaiah 65:24)

“I take the weak and make them strong. (2 Corinthians 12:10) I take the fearful and make them brave. (Deuteronomy 31:6, Joshua 1:9) I take those who are humble and submissive and exalt them in due time. (1 Peter 5:6) I use My servants who walk in obedience to do great and mighty things to bring Glory to My Name. (Isaiah 42:7) It’s not a matter of what you can do for Me. (2 Timothy 2:21) It’s all about what I can do in and through a willing vessel,” saith the Lord.

"Place your hope, your faith, your trust in Me. (Psalm 146:3-5) Fix your eyes upon Me. Look unto Me, the Author and Finisher of your faith. (Hebrews 12:2) Know ye this. I Am the Lord, Your God. (Joel 2:27) Hear ye My Voice. (John 10:27) Listen to Me. (James 1:22) Remove the distractions from around you and I will speak to you. (1 Corinthians 7:35) When you pray unto Me, when you see My Wisdom and Discernment, I will answer you. I will show you great and mighty things which thou knowest not. (Jeremiah 33:3) Walk in My Way. (Jeremiah 6:16) Let My light shine on your path. (Psalm 119:105) Go forth in My Name and Be Blessed, Dear One" saith the Lord of Hosts. (Matthew 23:39)