Did you know?... The Bible is a book of God's promises. It may seem to be about the past, but its outlook is toward the future. From promises in the Book of Genesis to Abraham and Sarah for a new land, a son, and countless descendants (chapter 17), to promises in the Book of Revelation of a "new heaven and a new earth" (21:1), God was helping biblical people live into the vision of creation's ultimate goal. The Old Testament (Hebrew Bible) uses the word shalom to describe God's future. We often translate this word as "peace," but it means more than that. Shalom means a world of plenty, of personal and interpersonal harmony and righteousness, of liberation, of just economic practices, and of ordered political relations.

All CUMC committees are asked to adjust and submit their estimated 2025 budget reports by July 31. Charge conference date TBA and may be as early as September. Thanks for your help!

For the work of the Call Committee: As we go about the task of calling church members to serve on a committee in 2025, we pray for the spirit of purpose to be in our midst as we go about the task and ask each of you to give of your time and talents to serve the church. So many of you have said Yes! But we still need a few more!
