

When We Pray – Things Will Change
September 15th, 2021

Storms

Sovereign God, we worship you and acknowledge that you know all of those who suffer in your name and those who are hurting in any way. We have a God who knows all things and see's all things. We pray for those that have been scattered from their homes because of the fires, flooding and storms. We pray for those in Afghanistan that are not able to return home or reach their loved ones. We pray for all those that are subject-ed to anti-Jesus and anti-Christian hostilities from their governments, from terrorists, from family's or other extreme social pressure. We pray that as these things happen around us and around the world that we will continue to pray for each other asking for God's strength, protection and peace. May we be there with compassion, love and help as we share the gospel of Jesus to those in need. We pray that we will remember that Our Lord is with us in all situations, all storms and all trials and we shall not be fearful because we know that he will never leave us. We rejoice always in the Lord and we give all the Glory to our God.

“In the midst of the trials that you are facing, I Am here. (John 16:33) As the storm rages and the wave's crash all around you, you will not be overtaken by them for I Am with you. As the darkness thickens and all hope seems lost, do not lose your faith and hope in Me for I will see you through. I Am teaching My Children to seek after Me when trials come. When you can't see a way out, I will lead you through to the other side of the storm. I Am training you to see My Blessings in the middle of the battle that is being fought. Your strength is not in yourself, but My Joy shall be your strength,” saith the Lord (Nehemiah 8:10)

John 14:27 AMP Peace I leave with you; My [perfect] peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. [Let My perfect peace calm you in every circumstance and give you courage and strength for every challenge.]

John 16:33 AMP I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have [perfect] peace. In the world you have tribulation and distress and suffering, but be courageous [be confident, be undaunted, be filled with joy]; I have overcome the world.” [My conquest is accomplished, My victory abiding.]

When We Pray – Things Will Change
September 15th, 2021

Storms

Sovereign God, we worship you and acknowledge that you know all of those who suffer in your name and those who are hurting in any way. We have a God who knows all things and see's all things. We pray for those that have been scattered from their homes because of the fires, flooding and storms. We pray for those in Afghanistan that are not able to return home or reach their loved ones. We pray for all those that are subject-ed to anti-Jesus and anti-Christian hostilities from their governments, from terrorists, from family's or other extreme social pressure. We pray that as these things happen around us and around the world that we will continue to pray for each other asking for God's strength, protection and peace. May we be there with compassion, love and help as we share the gospel of Jesus to those in need. We pray that we will remember that Our Lord is with us in all situations, all storms and all trials and we shall not be fearful because we know that he will never leave us. We rejoice always in the Lord and we give all the Glory to our God.

“In the midst of the trials that you are facing, I Am here. (John 16:33) As the storm rages and the wave's crash all around you, you will not be overtaken by them for I Am with you. As the darkness thickens and all hope seems lost, do not lose your faith and hope in Me for I will see you through. I Am teaching My Children to seek after Me when trials come. When you can't see a way out, I will lead you through to the other side of the storm. I Am training you to see My Blessings in the middle of the battle that is being fought. Your strength is not in yourself, but My Joy shall be your strength,” saith the Lord (Nehemiah 8:10)

John 14:27 AMP Peace I leave with you; My [perfect] peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. [Let My perfect peace calm you in every circumstance and give you courage and strength for every challenge.]

John 16:33 AMP I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have [perfect] peace. In the world you have tribulation and distress and suffering, but be courageous [be confident, be undaunted, be filled with joy]; I have overcome the world.” [My conquest is accomplished, My victory abiding.]